For many years ADRC has been the place to go for novice and nervous combinations. But with all good things we have been a victim of our own success, still wishing to help novice riders young and old, ADRC have decided in the interests of fairness, that NO horse or pony may compete in more than 3 classes in one day.

For example,

Your pony can enter the same height with different riders.

You may enter 50cms class and the 60cm,

but not enter 50cms, 60cms, then the 80cms.

Hope this make sense!! If you are not sure please message as us we are happy to help.

In the event of an elimination riders will not be asked to leave the ring after 2 refusals but will be encouraged to continue and complete their round.

Clear round jumping will be available after the show. Rosettes to all clear rounds. £5 per round. Payment will at the ringside by cash or card payment on the day.

Arundel District Riding Club was established over 30 years ago and is run by a group of volunteers, who organise events for its members from the local community.

Our riding club is for people of all ages and abilities and is popular with families, As a club, we are always striving to improve benefits for our members and to move with the times and demands of the riding community
